

Job Description

Provides professional classroom instruction at the early childhood level. Will specialize in multiple subjects at a specific grade level. Will participate in teaching teams and contribute to the overall school program.

Major Responsibilities

- Performs daily classroom teaching activities and participates in planning of instructional practices that best support student learning
- Defines classroom achievement goals, learning management system, uses technology, varies instructional methodology, plans individualized course of study for students
- Works in cooperation with other teachers and curriculum coordinators; utilizes "best practices" of instruction and curriculum materials as prescribed by KAUST Schools' administration
- Evaluates student progress using research- based formative and summative assessment practices on a regular basis
- Communicates students' progress to parents
- Learns and grows as a professional teacher
- Follows established policies and school guidelines

Other Responsibilities

- Designs instruction consistent with KAUST Schools' program goals and use instructional strategies that are consistent with the mission of the KAUST Schools
- Creates and maintain a respectful and positive learning environment
- Uses a variety of formative and summative assessment strategies
- Employs technology to support student learning
- Collaborates with colleagues to enrich instruction and professional practice

Competencies

- Knowledge of content, instructional strategies and student development
- Excellent command of oral and written English language
- Communicates clearly and accurately with various audiences
- Develops caring and respectful relationships

Qualifications

- Minimum two years of International Baccalaureate (IB) teaching experience in subject/area applying for
- Teaching degree and certification, or equivalent in subject/area applying for and minimum Bachelor's degree
- Experience and training in PYP/MYP/DP